

Best Futures E-Safety

TERM 2 Newsletter 2026

Five Nights of Freddy- parent information

Five nights of Freddy is horror themed video game designed to scare players through scares and unsettling characters. It is available on several platforms, including Xbox (PEGI 12) and the App Store (age ratings 13+). Despite the availability of toys and merchandise, which can make it appear child friendly., the content may not be suitable for younger children. Five Nights At Freddy's: A Video Game Review For Parents | Bark

CBeebies Parenting and Apps

CBeebies and parenting is a helpful resource for families, offering creative activities, guidance and recipes, also including information about the full range of CBeebies apps. CBeebies Parenting

Available Apps:

Playtime Island- fun games for kids

- Includes 40 free games designed for young children.
- A mix of educational and entertaining activities.

CBeebies Learn- Early Years Learning

- Features games and videos
- Based on the Early Years Stage (EYFS)

Get Creative- Open- Ended Creative Activities

- Completely Free
- Packed with Drawings, paintings and creative tools.

Welcome to Best Futures E-Safety newsletter.

The world of online safety is constantly evolving, and staying informed is key to protecting children in the digital age. Best Futures' E-Safety Newsletter is here to help parents stay up to date with the latest trends, risks, and resources empowering you to support your child's safe and responsible use of technology.

Balance screen time tips

Internet Matters have created some simple tips to support you in developing healthy online habits for your children. They also answer important questions such as "how much screentime is too much" and "is gaming bad for children Please find the link to access the screen time tips. Creating a balanced digital diet with screen time tips | Internet Matters

NSPCC parent tips and advice

The NSPCC recognises that keeping children with SEND safe online can be challenging. To support families, they have created a range of online safety tips, advice and activities specifically designed for parents and carers of children with SEND. Please look at the PDF links below.

PowerPoint Presentation

friendships-online-resource.pdf

cso_send_sharing-personal-details_jan2022.pdf

PowerPoint Presentation

PowerPoint Presentation

Statistic- 19% of children, aged 10- to 15-years-old, exchanged messages with someone online who they had never met before.

If you have any concerns regarding safeguarding, including online safety you can contact the Designated Safeguarding Leads: Kara Bradley or Abigail Moore on the office number 01472 278978